Attention: 3rd Sem and 5th Sem Students

Notice: Follow Provisional Academic Calendar for Academic Session 2023-24

We hope this notice finds you well. We would like to inform you that the Provisional Academic Calendar for the Academic Session 2023-24 has been finalized and issued by the University, and it is important for all students to adhere to it. The calendar outlines the schedule of various academic activities for the upcoming semester.

We would like to highlight that academic classes, including the Value Added Training program, will commence from 15.07.2023 (Saturday). Therefore, it is mandatory for all students to report to the College Campus on this day without fail.

The Provisional Academic Calendar itself provides a comprehensive overview of the important dates and events throughout the semester. It covers details such as examination schedules, holidays, workshops, and other essential activities. We urge you to review the calendar carefully and make note of all the important dates and deadlines.

If you have any doubts or require clarification regarding the Provisional Academic Calendar, please feel free to contact your respective Heads of Departments (HODs). They will be more than willing to assist you and address any queries you may have.

We expect full cooperation from all students in following the Provisional Academic Calendar to ensure a smooth and successful academic session. By adhering to the schedule, you will be able to effectively plan your studies, assignments, and examinations.

Wishing you all the best for the upcoming semester.

Sincerely,

Goswami
Dr Shatrajit Goswami
